

1700 BROADWAY

Meetings & Events

1700 Broadway boasts the perfect Midtown Manhattan meeting location. The 11th floor space has a mid-century flair, filled with soft sunlight, signature art pieces, and comfortable lounge seating. All-day access to coffee and beverages at the Club Lounge, the selection of games and coffee table books, and the billiards table in the Gallery provide a sense of community and desire to gather as a group or relax between sessions.

Designed with flexibility in mind, this 5358 sq ft location, offers space for larger groups with breakout sessions or can accommodate small, intimate executive retreats. However, we always feel the best way to experience New York City is high above the city streets on the 2,200 square foot outdoor terrace with panoramic views of Broadway. Your attendees will be lured in by the mesmerizing hum of the city below.

The light-filled Salon has been designed with the modern meeting in mind. The Salon boardroom and comfortable seating area work exceptionally well together to allow further conversation, breakout capabilities, an area for coffee or snacks or space to create. With flexible capabilities for setup and layout, The Flex Room provides traditional conference room style functionality minus the stale vanilla state of most meeting rooms.
